

PUBLIC POLICY LESSONS conference (virtual) November 12-13, 2021

CALL FOR PAPERS

The International Centre for Economic Analysis (ICEA) invites papers to be considered for a virtual conference on Public Policy Lessons (from the Pandemic).

This is the third conference in our After the Pandemic conference series. The conference series is devoted to analyzing various aspects of the pandemic and their long-term consequences.

Public policy faced serious challenges during the pandemic. The conference will analyze the effectiveness of public policy measures, and lessons for designing better policies to meet the public health challenges in the post-pandemic era. These involve, among others, improving the measurement of economic costs and benefits of various public health approaches, designing effective vaccination campaigns, optimizing lockdown policies, developing consistent communication and countering disinformation.

The conference is planned as interdisciplinary. We invite papers related to the general theme of the conference, in all fields, including economics, psychology, sociology, political science, business, management and medical fields.

The conference is open to both presenters and non-presenters, and there are no fees, but registration is required.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Judith A. Chevalier (Yale University School of Management and NBER)

Judith A. Chevalier (Yale University and NBER) is William S. Beinecke Professor of Economics and Finance at the Yale School of Management. ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

The International Centre for Economic Analysis (ICEA) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to the advancement of research in economics and other social sciences. It is an international centre with chapters in Canada, at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario; in Poland, at the University of Warsaw and in Italy, at the University of Siena. The centre was called the Research Centre for Economic Analysis until September 2021.

ICEA envisions to become a network of academics and policymakers who collaborate to apply cutting-edge theoretical and empirical research relevant to economic policy. The centre welcomes diverse views on how to realize this goal. ICEA sponsors high quality research linkages in both interdisciplinary and international dimensions. We encourage long-term affiliation with the centre, and we especially encourage participation of graduate students and new PhDs.

ICEA is directed by the Board. Members of the Board have extensive experience with organizing conferences. Past speakers at these conferences included, among others, Philippe Aghion, Larry Ball, Steve Cecchetti, Steven Davis, Janice Eberly, Emmanuel Farhi, Jordi Gali, John Haltiwanger, Elhanan Helpman, Peter Howitt, Charles Jones, Larry Karp, Josh Lerner, Enrique Mendoza, Emi Nakamura, James Robinson, Barbara Rossi, Rick van der Ploeg, John Van Reenen and Joseph Zeira.

PUBLICATION OPPORTUNITY

Review of Economic Analysis (REA), the official journal of ICEA, is planning to publish special issues from the conferences. The journal is open access, ABDC-ranked, peer-reviewed quarterly publication. ICEA aims to promote its further development as a top open access, general interest journal in the profession. REA is in its 13th year and is supported by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC). The papers submitted to the special issue will go through the usual refereeing process. REA charges no submission or publication fees.
